PRESIDENTIAL NOTATIONS

Why hello there, hope all is well in the heartland.

First of all, I would like to apologize for leaving our last meeting a little early. We had some scheduled work that needed to be done, and we finally finished around 2:15 AM

Enough about me, it is always humbling when our guest speakers come to the meetings and let us know where our donations are spent. Boy I wish we had millions to give to places that help kids in need.

That's about it on my end.

See yall soon,

Justin

Old Business

Justin Craig

Laura Cheney and a fellow staff member from the Hill Country Advocacy Center (HCAC) came to the meeting to thank the membership for the Club's support and explain the function of the Center and its advocacy and services for vulnerable children.

New Business

Justin Craig

Vee Brown gave an update on the Club website. Its HTML is outdated and the website will have to be moved to a new site, with every item needing be moved one at a time, and in the meantime, the current website is still up. It will cost $850-1000.00 to move the website. Steve Koehn made the motion to spend the funds to move the website, and West Pearson seconded the motion. The motion was approved by the membership.

Mark Kidd made the motion to make Founding Members Don and Cleora Craw Lifetime Members of the Club. They recently moved to Florida to be near family. Ron Adwers seconded the motion, and it was approved by the membership.

Mark Kidd also told the membership that his niece was starting up a pastry business, and he had a plate of her cake balls to be offered in auction to the membership. Bidding started with Sue Armstrong winning with a $50 bid, and she then donated the pastries back for rebidding. Bob Deets won the second bid for $45, and in turn donated it back for rebid. Toni Kunkel won the third bid for $45 and also donated it back. The final bid was won by Kieth Holder for $40, netting a total of $175.00 for the club treasury. Shirley Anderson stated that she has hard copies of the Newsletter dating back to the founding of the club.

DID WEST SAY THAT??

What We Did

Of course, Breakfast at Mama's in Burnet every Wednesday morning!

Wednesday, January 1st – Happy New Year! Mama's was closed, but we had a much better alternative – Steve and Pat Koehn graciously hosted a wonderful New Year's Brunch at their beautiful home in Highland Haven! We had a large crowd and a fantastic buffet with more selections than I could try!

Friday, January 3rd – Steak Night at the Eagles in Granite Shoals. I guess everyone exercised for a couple of days so that they could eat again!

Saturday, January 5th – LARC Saturday Night Fever Cruise in at SSB&T on US 281 in Marble Falls. Pretty good turn out for a January evening!

Wednesday, January 8th – Breakfast at Mama's in Burnet.... And I walked out on my bill! LOL! Paid them the next week, with a BIG tip!

Saturday, January 11th – We had a cruise to the Pecan Grove Store on Hwy 16, outside of Fredericksburg and sampled their "Dino Burgers"! Pretty good burgers, and BIG! We had about a dozen people show up, and that is probably about all they can handle at one time, but a pretty neat place.

Tuesday, January 14th – LARC monthly meeting at the Marble Falls Library. We had a good turnout beforehand at Chili's. Service was slow, but I put that down to Chili's assigning our group to a new hire and not giving him any help until near the end. Our Monthly Meeting was visited by representatives from HCCAC to thank us for their support and to give us more information about all that they do. It was very informative!

Saturday, January 18th – Our trip to Georgetown for Pistons On The Square was cancelled due to weather, but don't worry, we are going to try again. Three of our club cars (Corvettes!) made the trip to Corvettes on the Square in Lampasas and reported that they had a great time! They said that there were about 80 'Vettes in attendance!

Thursday, January 23rd – Our LARC Monthly Dinner was at Gio's Italian Restaurant in Llano. We had a great turnout with 42 (I believe) in attendance. That good turn out had a bit of a down side, as I believe some people experienced slow service. I hope you will give them a break and let us try there again sometime. They were trying and the manager was very apologetic to me. She admitted they got behind in the kitchen, with our group and a pretty good crowd in the rest of the restaurant. I thought the food was great! Was I the only one to have a cannoli and coffee after the meal? Trying to make me feel bad? It won't work! Remember "leave the body, take the cannoli".

What's Coming Up

Of course, Breakfast at Mama's Café in Burnet ALMOST every Wednesday, 8AM (right! Better get there early!).

Saturday, February 1st – LARC Saturday Night Fever Cruise-In at SSB&T on US 281 in Marble Falls. 5PM-7PM. Should be sunny and nice! Come on out!

Wednesday, February 5th – Breakfast at Mama's in Burnet.

Friday, February 7th – Steak Night at the Eagles in Granite Shoals. Come have a steak with us!

Tuesday, February 11th – LARC Monthly Meeting at the Marble Falls Library – 7-8 PM. Join a large group that meets at Chili's before the meeting, at 5PM.

Wednesday, February 12th – Breakfast at Mama's in Burnet.

TUESDAY, February 18th – LARC Monthly Dinner at Margarita's Mexican Restaurant in Liberty Hill (10,280 W State Hwy 29, Liberty Hill, TX 78642) , 5PM-???. I will lead a caravan leaving the Shell Station in Burnet at 4:20PM.

Wednesday, February 19th – Breakfast at Mama's in Burnet

Friday, February 21st - Steak Night at the Eagles in Granite Shoals. Come have a steak with us!

Wednesday, February 26th – Breakfast at Mama's in Burnet.

Looking Ahead

I'm trying to arrange a Cruise to Curtis Roys to let him show us his fantastic "Man Cave". I'm trying to get some help right now to contact him to set this up! Hope to confirm this soon! Will give details then.

Saturday, March 7th – 7th Annual RockNRides, Gupton Stadium, Cedar Park 8:30AM

Saturday, April 18th LARC Annual Bluebonnet Car Show, Burnet. Mark has PROMISED good weather!

Friday/Saturday, April 17th/18th: Lone Star Rod and Kustom Round Up. Held at Travis County Expo Center, 7311 Decker Lane, Austin TX 78724. If you have never been there, it is sensory overload!
