PRESIDENTIAL NOTATIONS

Hello everyone, hope all is well. Nothing is new with me, still working outside everyday. Hey, on a good note, we did plant a new flower bed outside the front of the house. So, if anyone wants to learn how to blow a lot of money, spend two full weekends of your time hoeing and digging, and testing the limits of your marriage, I am definitely the right guy to talk to. That being said I am just trying (like everyone else) to keep a positive attitude and not mention the things the internet has made us ALL very tired of hearing already. I am looking forward to our next monthly meeting. Although it may take us 4 hours to wrap it up with all the hugging that will take place since we have not seen anyone in over a month.

See ya soon,

Justin

WEST DIDN'T SAY MUCH!

WHAT WE DID:

Well, folks not much to report this time! Hoping that everyone in our “family” is well and taking care of themselves!

Everything in the world seems to have come to a halt, but there is light at the end of the tunnel! During this time, I know that Bryan and Patsy got their MG out a little (was some gorgeous weather for it) to, at least, the park at San Saba. Its a beautiful park and I'll be setting up an activity for there.

I've had a couple of car shows, in my driveway! Put my truck and Firebird out in the drive so people in the neighborhood could see them. Also found a potential new member here in Highland Haven, with a (new to him) '72 240Z!

COMING UP:

Nothing definite scheduled for May, but we will try to set something up, if it is consistent with Governor Abbott's “Plan to ReOpen Texas”. I probably won't try to set up a dinner, with the restrictions on capacity, and the remaining threat, I think that should wait till June.

LOOKING AHEAD:

The only items definitely scheduled at the present are:

June 13—CODY CAR SHOW—The Cody Car Show in Kerrville is scheduled for June 13th. $25 entry, Top 30 Awards. I've been to this show, and it is INDOORS an a good show with some great cars. It is at the Hill Country Youth Event Center, 3785 Hwy 27, Kerrville, TX 78038. A bit of a drive, but a nice show.

July 11—SHOW AND SHINE AT 7 CREEKS VINEYARDS - This is a show and shine at 7 Creeks Vineyards, outside of Bertram. Tentatively scheduled for Saturday, July 11th, 1-4PM. We will get “gourmet” hot dogs and some wine for showing up. It is a beautiful venue, and there should be an opportunity for some great photo ops for your cars by the vineyard! Previously scheduled for June, but we are looking to reschedule. I know it is July, but this is on a hill, and places for our chairs under some huge, gorgeous trees!

Mark: Have you scheduled our car show yet?□□□

I expect that a lot of shows are going to be scheduled quickly, so I am relying on you all to look for them and give me details when you find something!

West;

EDITOR'S CORNER

(He's still restricted to it due to the lockdown, in his little shelter)

WHOOPIE!!!!!! I have an entire page devoted exclusively to my inane comments!! Well, maybe not too inane. Now, what to say.

It was a dark and stormy night (no that's no way to start an article). Let's try again.

As West wrote, not too much going on for May, but just in case, I left a possible breakfast date open for the last Wednesday in the month, as well as the possibility of the Granite Fest on the last Saturday of the month (the 28th).

Hope springs eternal, I left as open questions possible events, the Monthly Meeting, breakfasts, and the Cody Car Show. Hope springs eternal, and it's possible that the restrictions will loosen up.

All we can do in the meantime is keep up our preventative measures to minimize possibility of contamination. Don't lose hope. Catch up on getting those special cars ready for shows that will surely be rescheduled this summer. Call a long lost friend. Don't get hung up on the internet.

Go for a drive in the country. We have so many scenic county roads that can be explored, in Burnet, Blanco, Lampasas, Llano, etc. It doesn't require anything but a tank of gas, and the desire to get out of the house.

Your Fiendly Editor will keep cranking out the monthly issues of the Newsletter. People will keep having birthdays and anniversaries, and both Justin and West will likely continue issuing notes appropriate to their offices.
