PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Hi Y'all,

Hope everyone is keeping away from this virus thing. Doing Okay at my place up to now.

Not a whole lot going on to write about. Just a couple cruisers to do what we all do best - EAT !!! And a couple of Saturday cruises at the bank in Marble Falls. Missed them both, out of town for one and personal reasons for the other,

Hope everyone has a Happy Thanksgiving. Stay safe and hope to see y'all soon.

NO NOTES FROM THE CIGAR GUY THIS MONTH

This being the Christmas Season, we decided that the Cigar Guy could take a break from his monthly travail of having to string a bunch of words together that would tell us of what we did and what we could look forward to. Our December first Saturday Cruise in at SSBT was likely rained out (a guess, since your Fiendly Editor was working at the Bertram Christmas Festival, and it rained up there and got our '67 and '17 Vettes wet and splattered with mud and other road dirt). Your Editor will try to fill in for the Cigar Guy.

Thursday, Nov. 14—A little cruise to the Pecan Grove Store, on 16 north of Fredricksburg. A nice sunny day, slightly breezy, but nice, and they do have Guinness Stout for us beer snobs (Editor included)!! We had at least 5 cars, having left from Fuzzy's Corner.

Tuesday, Nov. 24—Seven of our cars showed up on a gray, drizzly day to help with the re-opening of the , Kwik Kar Wash in Marble Falls. Two of our lucky cars got TLC in terms of wash and detail from the staff. The manager lady took many pics of our cars, and based on your Editor's experience, got the prized C7 wet and dirty on the way home. This was a good way to support one of our Sponsors—and time well spent.

Saturday, Nov. 28—Our Cruise In at SSBT, had at least 10 cars, plus a Stealth Mustang that was invisible on a dark night.

Wednesday, Dec. 30—A nice lady in Meadow Lakes will be celebrating her 95th. See enclosed poster.

EDITOR'S CORNER

Here we are, late again with the December issue of the Newsletter. We are still here, LARC has not gone away. It's somewhat dormant, but there is a hard core of stubborn folks who still get together to eat breakfast or go somewhere. For those who must take precautions, we hope that this will be a small reminder that we will forge on, and that a few pictures and inane comments will still bring a smile.

ROCKEFELLER CAR MUSEUM

Winthrop Rockefeller, former Governor of Arkansas was also a car collector. He established a car museum near Petit Jean State Park. The museum now serves as the national headquarters of the Mid-America Old Time Car Museum. It's worth a visit!

PAT BULLARD

Pat Bullard, who helped found LARC, passed away on November 27. The memorial was held at the Smithwick Church of Christ on Saturday, December 12. Several LARC members attended the service to respect Pat's hard work in helping get our Club off the ground and thriving. In the Spring of 2004, Founding Members Mike Dohrse, Don and Cleora Craw, Pete Bundrant, and Pat were instrumental in formulating the documentation and doing the work necessary to help create a tax-exempt, non-profit organization dedicated to serve those interested in unique automobiles.

Thank you, Pat.
